

Point-of-Care

What is the Point-of-Care tool?

The StatPearls Point-of-Care tool is a resource empowering healthcare workers to quickly search and make critical bedside decisions through technology giving them the knowledge of more than 8,500 healthcare professionals right at their fingertips. All content is peer-reviewed and evidence based.

Where can I use the this tool?

StatPearls Point-of-Care tool is useful in all settings. From the emergency room to the office setting, we're there to support all clinicians and healthcare providers.

What specialties does the POC tool cover?

The StatPearls POC tool covers all 172 medical specialties and subspecialties.

Can I earn continuing education?

Just by using the POC tool, you earn CE/CME. For nurses and physicians, using the POC tool earns .5 activities hours for topic researched.

What devices can I use?

The POC tool can be used on any device with access to the internet. Our tool is optimized for mobile and tablet and can be used on desktop as well.

Does it have other tools?

StatPearls POC has ALS/BLS algorithms; robust drug interaction tool; easy to use calculators; and even patient handouts.

